

There are five reasons you will love this book,
We're told on a page at the start,
I say there are LOADS when you take a look,
This is written from a dog person's heart!

Gizmo, the Wonder Dog, is fourteen years old,
Seventy-eight in his doggo years,
He belongs to George, ULTRA BOY, we're told,
Together they share fun and tears

But Gizmo has a tale to show and tell
Cos he's getting on a bit now,
He may be slow and his breath may smell
But he's gonna take his final bow, WOW!

Cos George has compiled a bucket list
To give Gizmo the VERY best time,
Camping, pampering, you get the gist,
There's even a BIG HILL to climb

The ManDem – they're a group of three –
Call George dogboy, a freak and odd,
But Matt was AntiMatter Kid with Georgie,
In the INTERGALACTIC POWER SQUAD!

When George has a freakout and feels upset
It's Gizmo who cheers him up,
He's George's best friend, not just a pet,
Gizmo's been there since a pup

George is helped by a girl called Lib,
They share adventures along the way,
Like Practically Pawfect, thieves, the odd fib,
To reach Golden Beach at the end of day

I was told this story has sad bits too
And I may need to grab some tissues,
Gizmo's Final Chapter made me cry, it's true,
When he talks about life and death issues

But this last woof and testament does succeed
Mixing sadness with laughter and joy,
Ben Davis, your story is a BRILLIANT read,
Like Gizmo, you're a very good boy!

© Sara-Jane Arbury

